

The $10,000 Jim Crawford Award for Innovation in Libraries is designed to reward people who are making a significant contribution to South Australia's public libraries and to encourage and drive further innovation.

The award is available to individuals or groups working in, or associated with, public libraries eligible for funding by the Libraries Board of South Australia.

The award will be granted to recognise proven outstanding contribution to public libraries as judged against one or more of the following criteria:

- The fostering and/or implementation of innovations in library services which have direct benefits to the public
- The implementation of improvements which directly advance library services for disadvantaged communities
- Demonstrated individual excellence in providing inspirational leadership in the field of public libraries
- The implementation of an outstanding proposal in keeping with the spirit of the award

Nominations for the award close on Thursday 14 August 2008.

The award winner will be announced at the Luncheon to be held in conjunction with the Public Libraries SA Quarterly Meeting on Thursday 28 August 2008.

For more information, visit www.lga.sa.gov.au/goto/crawford

Nomination for the Jim Crawford Award for Innovation in Libraries - 2008

Nominators are required to provide a very brief overview of their project at the 2008 Awards Luncheon.

Nominations:

The following information is required when submitting nominations:

- The person or group being nominated
- The person submitting the nomination
- Contact person, telephone number and email address of the nominator
- Information to support the nomination (please provide a description of no more than 1500 words as to why this person or group should receive this award)
- A paragraph of up to 150 words summarising the nomination – this will be printed and placed on the tables at the presentation of the award

Submitting Nominations:

All nominations should be emailed to crawford.award@lga.sa.gov.au with The Jim Crawford Award in the subject line.

Further Information:

If you require further information please contact Alison Gill at the Local Government Association on 8224 2031.

Deadline for nominations - Thursday 14 August 2008